Re: Resumption of Trading of Copper and Nickel ETC Securities

Dear Sir / Madam

Capitalised terms used in this notice not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Base Prospectus relating to the ETC Securities dated 25 February 2022, as supplemented on 9 August 2022.

We hereby notify you that on 20 September 2022, the Arranger and Metals Counterparty informed the Issuer that all necessary processes were now in place to allow secondary trading in the Copper and Nickel ETC Securities with effect from 23 September 2022. Therefore the Issuer has now informed Deutsche Börse, Borsa Italiana and the SIX Swiss Exchange that secondary market trading of the Copper and Nickel ETC Securities on the such exchanges will resume on 23 September 2022.

Please note that: (a) this notice only relates to the Copper and Nickel ETC Securities on the aforementioned stock exchanges; and (b) secondary market trading of the Copper and Nickel ETC Securities on the London Stock Exchange has not yet resumed.

The Issuer shall inform you separately when secondary trading in the other ETC Securities, and trading on the London Stock Exchange, will resume.

Given by the Issuer.
